AUTUMN SEWING CELEBRATION

Pete Sews - Pete Trimble

Pete will show the process of creating a Bespoke Heirloom - a garment that incorporates an existing sentimental item. He will explain how the concept develops with the client and how he works to design and create this truly special, sentimental garment. Some of the sewing will be shown along with design and finishing techniques.

Pete creates bespoke menswear on the Sunshine Coast in Queensland. He has been sewing for about 10 years, during that time creating dozens of custom, unique outfits for a range of clients. Self-taught in almost all aspects of sewing and garment construction, Pete is a unique creator. His skills are in creating outfits for men who like to make a statement including the use of unique fabrics and special details. All Pete's garments are handmade in his studio in Coolum Beach. From measurement to design to sewing and finishing; everything is completed by Pete, for you and only you.
